- Pam, founder and proud mom of a T1D warrior.*

I found a FREE service I'd like you to consider using to help us communicate better with each other throughout the school year. It was created by a mom of a child with diabetes. Also, it's HIPAA and FERPA compliant.

BlueLoop is online and allows all caregivers - parents, nurses, teachers, etc. - to put information like BGs, carbs, insulin administered, and notes into my child's account and BlueLoop instantly sends a text and/or email notification so that we are all in the loop and know how he's doing without making phone calls or sending hand-written notes. It's also a great way for you to send me a message, like when you're low on supplies or need more snacks.

BlueLoop also has an insulin calculator!

If you're not already registered with BlueLoop, follow these steps to sign up:

1. Go to <https://blueloop.mycareconnect.com/school>
2. Complete the online registration – It takes about 2 minutes.
3. Log in and you'll see your unique verification code under the My District heading.
4. To the right of your verification code, click to either Print or Email me your unique verification code.
5. I'll enter your verification code in my child's account, and we'll be connected so that when you log into your BlueLoop account, you'll see his name and can enter his info as described above.

As you add more students, you'll provide those parents your unique verification code and when you log into your account, you'll see all your students listed – You don't have to log into and out of each student's BlueLoop account.

Thank you! If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me, or contact Pam Henry at BlueLoop. Pam is the mom who created BlueLoop, and she can get you signed up, help you connect with your students, and answer any questions you have. Her direct number is 972-841-1311, or you can email her at pam.henry@mycareconnect.com.
